Dublin Caſtle, March 8.

THE Houſe of Commons having reſolved upon an humble Addreſs to His Majeſty, the ſame, together with an Addreſs to the Lord Lieutenant, was this Day preſented to his Excellency; and, with his Excellency's Anſwers, are as follow:

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeſſes, in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland, in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to expreſs, in the moſt dutiful Manner, our unbounded Gratitude to your Majeſty for the Affection you are graciouſly pleaſed to declare towards your faithful Subjects of Ireland, and your Readineſs to concur with us in every Meaſure which may conduce to their Proſperity.

We return our moſt humble Thanks to your Majeſty, for giving us this Opportunity of taking into our Conſideration ſuch Laws as ſhall be found immediately neceſſary for the general Good of this Kingdom, and for the Reviving thoſe, which from Experience have proved of Advantage to the Publick; and we aſſure your Majeſty, that, with Hearts full of Gratitude, we aſcribe this, and every other Benefit we receive, to the ſpontaneous Dictates of your Majeſty's Royal Juſtice and Benignity.

We acknowledge the great Wiſdom and Humanity of your Majeſty, in recommending to us, as an Object of the higheſt Importance, the preſent high Price of Corn in this Kingdom.

We place the juſteſt Confidence in your Majeſty's gracious Favour and Protection, for the Support and Encouragement of our principal Branch of Trade, the Linen Manufacture; and we are happy to find, that not only the uſual Bounties on the Exportation of our Linens have been continued, but that they have been further extended by the Britiſh Parliament.

When we conſider the preſent Situation of this Country, with Regard to Trade, we have the higheſt Satisfaction in being informed, that with very ſtrict Œconomy, the Duties which were granted laſt Seſſion of Parliament, and which will not expire until Chriſtmas next, may be ſufficient to anſwer the Expences of your Majeſty's Government, and that no further Supplies are to be aſked for.

And we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that as nothing can give us greater Satisfaction than your Majeſty's Approbation of our Conduct, ſo nothing can affect us more ſenſibly than any Mark of your Royal Diſpleaſure; and that we are incapable, even in Thought, of attempting any Thing againſt your Majeſty's Authority, or the Rights of the Crown of Great-Britain, from whence we own, with the utmoſt Gratitude, we derive our principal Protection and Support. We acknowledge, with the moſt perfect Submiſſion, that we are ever tenacious of the Honour of granting Supplies to your Majeſty, and of being the firſt Movers therein, as they are the voluntary Tribute of grateful Hearts to the beſt of Monarchs; and we moſt humbly beſeech your Majeſty, that your Majeſty will not permit our Zeal in this Particular to be conſtrued into an Invaſion of your Majeſty's Royal Authority, than which nothing can be more diſtant from our Thoughts. And we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that your Majeſty's Rights are equally dear to us as our own, as we are ſenſible that our Happineſs depends upon the Preſervation of both inviolate.

We congratulate your Majeſty on the Increaſe of your Majeſty's Royal Family, by the Birth of another Princeſs, ſince the laſt Seſſion of Parliament; an Event the moſt intereſting to us, as we conſider every Addition to your Royal Family, as an Increaſe of Strength to the Proteſtant Intereſt, and to the Happineſs of this Kingdom.

We return our moſt humble Thanks to your Majeſty, for continuing his Excellency the Lord Viſcount Townſhend in the Government of this Kingdom, from whoſe approved Integrity, and from whoſe long Knowledge and Experience of us and our Sentiments, we are perſuaded a juſt Repreſentation will be made of our Loyalty and Duty to the beſt of Princes.

E. Sterling, H. Alcock; } Cler. Dom. Com.

His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer.

I Will take Care that this Addreſs ſhall be tranſmitted by the firſt Opportunity, to be laid before His Majeſty.

To his Excellency George Lord Viſcount Townſhend, Lord Lieutenant General, and General Governor of Ireland.

The humble Addreſs of the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeſſes, in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE, His Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland, in Parliament aſſembled, return your Excellency our moſt unfeigned Thanks for your moſt excellent Speech from the Throne; and beg Leave to expreſs our ſincere Congratulations on this Parliament being appointed to meet again under your Excellency; from whoſe approved Integrity, and from whoſe long Knowledge and Experience of us and of our Sentiments, we are perſuaded a juſt Repreſentation will be made of our Loyalty and Duty to the beſt of Princes.

We acknowledge with great Gratitude the Continuance and Extenſion of the Bounties given by the Britiſh Parliament, on the Exportation of Iriſh Linens.

We return your Excellency Thanks for the Information you have been pleaſed to give us, that you have Reaſon to expect that the Duties which were granted laſt Seſſion of Parliament may be ſufficient to anſwer the Expences of His Majeſty's Government, and that you are not now to aſk for any further Supply.

We ſhall with the trueſt Pleaſure co-operate with your Excellency in all that may tend to the Publick Welfare, and in all our Deliberations ſhall obſerve that Temper and Unanimity, which alone can render our Proceedings beneficial to the Publick, and bring them to a ſpeedy and happy Concluſion.

E. Sterling, H. Alcock, } Cler. Dom. Com.

His Excellency's Anſwer.

I Thank the Houſe of Commons for this kind Addreſs. I receive with great Pleaſure their Congratulations on this Parliament being appointed to meet again under me. My long Knowledge and Experience of them and their Sentiments, will always induce me to make a juſt Repreſentation of their Loyalty and Duty to His Majeſty.

Warſaw, February 27. Every Poſt from Leopold and that Neighbourhood continues to bring us favourable Accounts of the Diminution of the Plague; and if proper Precautions are taken with the Houſes and Effects where it has raged, it is to be hoped we ſhall hear no more of it on the Return of Spring.
